Industry and Large Commercial Laboratories Membership Benefits

Join CLSI to raise your voice and visibility in our influential global network. For companies in the diagnostics and pharmaceutical fields, the time and cost involved in overcoming regulatory hurdles can greatly delay or even end the chance to get important innovations into practice. Through CLSI membership, your organization has the opportunity to collaborate with regulators, peers and customers on developing and implementing standards that are widely recognized to facilitate regulatory review for IVD devices, tests and other diagnostic products.
